Activity Report

Field visit to 'Bombay Stock Exchange'

Date: 7th February, 2023

One Day Field visit to 'Bombay Stock Exchange' was organized on 7th February, 2023 by BAF and BBI Department. Total 314 students visited the Bombay Stock Exchange. Total 158 Males and 156 females. The students were accompanied by 4 teachers. Mr. Vibhav Galadagekar, Ms. Anjali Pal, Ms. Darshana Sawant and Mr. Tejas Pednekar accompanied the students as teacher representatives to BSE visit.

Resource Person at BSE spoke about the history, origin and functioning of the BSE, he emphasized on the trading that takes places in the premise and regulations of trading. Procedure to be followed and compliance related documentation under SEBI rules was highlighted.

The session was started with formal introduction of the Resource Person followed by orientation about the BSE, BSE Institute Limited, and several courses offered by BSE institute limited. The workshop ended National Anthem.

Action Taken Report

The participant felt that the field visit was well organized with object chosen to create an awareness to understand the functioning of the BSE. The participants suggested a similar workshop to be organized with object to learn about trading in BSE and understanding the technical and fundamental analysis. There was a healthy dialogue from the speaker representing BSE who motivated more and more students to participate in retail investing of capital market and learn more about the equity trading. There was also an exchange of ideas and Question Answer Round.
